Dear Ma'am Eda:

The Provincial Government of Ilocos Sur, under the esteemed leadership of the Honorable Governor Jeremias C. Singson, is proud to share the continued progress and achievements of our province, particularly in the field of sports development.

We are pleased to inform you that the Batang Pinoy National Championships 2025 will be held from 25 to 30 October 2025 in General Santos City. In previous years, Ilocos Sur has consistently earned commendable rankings in this prestigious competition, competing against over 100 participating local government units nationwide.

In line with our preparations for this national event, we respectfully request your office to issue the necessary actions for all qualified educators who will serve as coaches for the participating sports disciplines. These include the issuance of a memorandum and travel orders to facilitate their official participation.

Below is the schedule of key activities in preparation for the national competition:

- Intensive Training:
Every Saturday and Sunday
02 August – 12 October 2025
- Departure of Delegates (Vigan City to Manila):
14 October 2025
- Return of Delegates (Back to Vigan City):
05 November 2025

Attached herewith is the official list of athletes and coaches who shall represent the delegation of Ilocos Sur in the upcoming competition. We sincerely hope for your favorable response and prompt action on this request. The active involvement of our dedicated educators and talented athletes will undoubtedly further the development of sports in the province and strengthen our representation on the national stage.

Thank you for your continued support and cooperation.

Respectfully yours,

JONATHAN A. PUGARAD
