Subject: Activation of Gatorade Fuel Tomorrow Academy Partner School Resources and Fulfillment Program

Dear Dr. Aquino,

Warm greetings from the Gatorade Fuel Tomorrow Academy Campaign 2025 Team!

We would like to extend our sincerest gratitude for your ongoing support and for your assistance in confirming and endorsing the initial list of participating schools in your region. Your office's engagement has been instrumental in ensuring a strong and meaningful start to the campaign.

As you know, the Gatorade Fuel Tomorrow Academy (GFTA) is a wide-scale movement that promotes student wellness through regular physical activity, hydration awareness, and nutrition education. As the school year begins and temperatures continue to rise, one concern becomes increasingly important: keeping students properly hydrated. The youth are especially vulnerable to dehydration, particularly during physical education classes, sports activities, and long school days filled with movement and learning.

With the goal of reaching 6,650 schools from Luzon, we are proud to have onboarded the first 500 partner schools, including those within Region I, to lead the way.

The Gatorade Fuel Tomorrow Academy - Digital Resource Kit

To support full implementation at the school level, each partner school has been given free access to the Gatorade Fuel Tomorrow Academy Digital Resource Kit for Principals, Coaches, and other relevant school leaders - a resource developed with input from experts in human kinetics, public health, and hydration science.

The kit includes:

- The Gatorade Fuel Tomorrow Academy Playbook: An evidence-based manual containing strategies to promote student health for the mind, body, and soul

- Fuel Up Move Video: A guided exercise video to get students active and warmed up, can be used in the classroom or for PE integration
- Printable Educational Materials: Printable materials that can be displayed to promote hydration education and the importance of essential fluids among youth

Schools may access the kit here: www.gfueltomorrowacademy.com

Support Your School's Wellness Goals

Gatorade is committed to supporting hydration education and school wellness initiatives through the above program, which has been designed to align with DepEd's guidelines.

The Gatorade Saver Pack (237mL) - which falls under the yellow category of allowable beverages for schools - is a great fit for hydration education and school wellness activities. If your school is interested in learning more about Gatorade 237 from our team, please register using the form/QR linked below. A representative will reach out to discuss how Gatorade can support your initiatives and coordinate next steps.

Form Link: <https://forms.gle/V7t79MW49JmKqHwT9>

We respectfully request your help in encouraging school principals to:

1. Actively integrate the campaign materials in PE, homeroom, or school-wide activities;
2. Utilize the seeding program to reinforce hydration awareness and support movement-based initiatives; and
3. Support the broader goal of creating more enabling, health-supportive school environments.

We remain committed to supporting your office and the participating schools throughout the campaign and are available for any coordination or capacity-building needs. Our official implementation partner, Redscope Communications Inc., may also be contacted for direct school-level support:
