SUBJECT : WORKSHOP ON THE DEVELOPMENT OF MONITORING AND EVALUATION PROCESSES FOR FINANCIAL EDUCATION

DATE : September 8, 2025

The Department of Education has issued DepEd Order No. 22, s. 2021, which outlines the policy on financial education and emphasizes the integration of financial education into the K to 12 program. To achieve the goals of financial education, a monitoring and evaluation process shall be developed to ensure that the intended outcomes of FinEd are met and guarantee the program's sustainability and effectiveness.

Relative to this, the Department, through the Bureau of Curriculum Development in collaboration with BDO Foundation, shall conduct the Workshop on Development of a Monitoring and Evaluation Process for Financial Education scheduled on October 28-30, 2025, in the National Capital Region (NCR). A separate notice regarding the activity venue will be released. The workshop specifically aims to develop a monitoring and evaluation tool for financial education in basic education.

This Office requests the participation of the invited individuals listed in Annex A for the forthcoming face to face activity. The Bureau places high priority on health and well-being of all participants; hence, all attendees of this workshop must be in excellent health and fit to work given the demand of the workshop.

The participants' board and lodging, and travel expenses shall be charged to BDO Foundation. The first meal is AM snack on October 28, and the last meal is lunch on October 30, 2025.
