Dear ASec. Joyce,

We hope that this letter finds you well.

In line with the Department of Education's thrust to strengthen data-driven governance and support evidence-based decision-making, we would like to inform you that we shall conduct the Online Orientation on the Khan Academy District (KAD) Platform for Education Leaders on November 20, 2025 from 9:00 am to 11:00 am via Zoom through this link: www.bit.ly/kadorientation.

The KAD platform provides real-time access to school, division, and regional data that can be used to monitor learner progress on Khan Academy, track usage and proficiency trends that may be utilized to inform planning and interventions. To ensure its effective adoption, this orientation aims to:

1. Familiarize education leaders with the features and functions of the KAD platform and on data privacy and protection when using KAD;
2. Provide guidance on interpreting and utilizing platform data for policy and program decisions; and
3. Clarify the roles and responsibilities of Superintendents, Regional Directors, and both Regional and Division Focal Persons in managing and maximizing the platform.

This KAD Online Orientation is organized for the Regional Office (RO) and Schools Division Office (SDO) personnel who were not able to attend the orientation held on October 8, 2025. Each region is allotted two (2) slots while each SDO is allotted one (1) slot.

We trust this initiative will significantly contribute to the Department's ongoing efforts to promote transparency, accountability, and data-informed decision-making across all governance levels.

We respectfully request that the regions and SDOs ensure that all personnel are notified through an email and ensure participation of everyone.

Thank you very much for your continued commitment to innovation and excellence in education.

Best regards,
