We would be truly grateful for your valuable coordination so that this activity may be carried out smoothly and without causing major disruptions to the learners' class schedules. With your support, we hope to make this season a little brighter for our young learners and remind them that they are loved, celebrated, and remembered during the holidays.

Thank you very much for your continued partnership and for opening doors that allow initiatives like this to reach more children in our community.

May your Christmas season be filled with joy, warmth, and God's abundant blessings.

Yours faithfully,
