PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAMS OF THE PHILIPPINE EDUCATORS FOR PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT INC.

The Philippine Educators for Professional Development, Inc. (PEPD) invites teachers and school leaders to its blended learning approach of professional development programs, focusing on essential competencies in effective curriculum implementation aligned with the key domains of the Philippine Professional Standards for Teachers. The programs are designated to foster the science of teaching and learning, in clear support of the Revised K to 10 and Strengthened Senior High School (SHS) Curriculum.

These programs emphasize research-based instructional strategies, the development of higher-order thinking skills, and the creation of authentic assessments, and aim to empower teachers to become active agents of curriculum enhancement through sound instructional planning, contextualization of content, and interdisciplinary approaches. The schedules of the professional development programs are as follows:

| Program Title   | Proposed Dates and Venue                        | Target Participants               |
|---|---|-----------------------------------|
| Safe Schools, Strong Minds: Empowering Teachers with Psychological First Aid  | January 16-18, 2026Zoom Conferencing System | Teachers I-IIIMaster Teachers |
