Dear Hon. Cariño:

Subject: Invitation to Participate in the Research Masterclass: Leveraging Research for Institutional and Professional Internationalization

Warm greetings from the Ascendens Asia International Research Institute (AAIRI).

On behalf of AAIRI, we are pleased to invite the officials, teaching and non-teaching personnel, researchers, graduate students, and other interested education professionals under your esteemed Region to participate in the Research Masterclass: Leveraging Research for Institutional and Professional Internationalization, to be held on 10 October 2026 via Zoom Conference.

The Research Masterclass is AAIRI's international professional development initiative that explores how research can serve as a strategic driver of institutional internationalization, academic excellence, and organizational development. Through expert-led sessions, participants will gain practical insights into global benchmarking, quality assurance, international partnerships, academic leadership, research productivity, institutional visibility, and evidence-informed strategies that enable educational institutions to strengthen their global engagement while advancing research excellence.

This year's masterclass will bring together distinguished international experts from Portugal, the United States, Vietnam, India, Malawi, Samoa, and New Zealand, representing higher education institutions, international organizations, and research networks with extensive expertise in internationalization, accreditation, academic leadership, research management, quality assurance, and global partnerships. Through complementary presentations, participants will examine institutional internationalization from multiple perspectives, including strategic partnerships, student mobility, global benchmarking, accreditation, indigenous knowledge integration, research leadership, and professional capacity development.

Among the confirmed speakers are:

- Athena Georgene U. Ang, DBA, Director of the Singapore Institute of Multidisciplinary Professions and President of the Royal Institution Singapore.
- Ali M. A. Kamali, Ph.D., Dean of the Faculty of Management at the American University of Science, Vietnam; Lecturer at Van Lang University, Vietnam, and at Kirirom Institute of Technology, Cambodia.
- Avinash W. Kolhatkar, Ph.D., Principal and Professor at Sanmanti College of Engineering, India, and Accreditation Assessor at the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Government of India.

- Benjamin Levy, Ph.D., Fellow in Educational Leadership and Research at the Institute of Education, University of the South Pacific, Samoa, and Founding Director of the Global Indigenous Network, USA.
- Steve L. Sharra, Ph.D., Director of Academic Affairs at the Malawi School of Government.
- Magda Resende Ferro, MiM, MBA, Independent Consultant for Internationalisation and Digital Transformation in Higher Education and former Head of the International Relations Office at Universidade Católica Portuguesa, Portugal.
- Sripriya Sarathy, MBA, Chairperson of the International Professors Project (USA) and Co-founder of Let's Learn Africa.

We believe that this masterclass will provide valuable professional learning opportunities for educators, academic leaders, researchers, and institutional administrators by equipping them with internationally recognized strategies and best practices that support institutional development, research excellence, innovation, and global engagement.

In this regard, we would be honored by the participation of your officials and personnel in this international learning initiative. We likewise hope that this invitation may be shared with education institutions and other interested education professionals under your jurisdiction so that more members of the academic community may benefit from this unique opportunity for professional growth and international collaboration.

Attached herewith is the event information for your reference.

Should you require additional information or assistance, please feel free to contact us through partnerships@aairi.org or +65 8413 7706.

We sincerely appreciate your continued support of initiatives that promote research excellence, academic leadership, innovation, and international collaboration. We look forward to welcoming participants from institutions under your jurisdiction to this meaningful learning experience.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Prof. Gilbert C. Magulod Jr., Ph.D., CESE

ABOUT THE RESEARCH MASTERCLASS CONFERENCE SPEAKERS

The Research Masterclass brings together a distinguished group of senior leaders, accomplished academics, researchers, and internationalization practitioners with extensive experience in basic and higher education, institutional development, global engagement, and research collaboration.

The conference speakers hold key leadership, executive, advisory, and decision-making roles within their respective organizations. Their professional backgrounds encompass academic administration, policy development, curriculum enhancement, quality assurance, international partnerships, faculty and student mobility, research management, innovation, and cross-border collaboration.

With years of experience leading institutional initiatives and working with diverse academic and professional communities, the speakers offer both strategic perspectives and practical insights. They have contributed to the development of programs, policies, partnerships, and research-driven solutions that strengthen institutional performance, expand global linkages, and enhance the international dimensions of teaching, learning, research, and professional practice.

Through their presentations, participants will gain valuable knowledge from experienced professionals who understand the opportunities and challenges of internationalization across different institutional and national contexts. Their collective expertise will provide actionable strategies, good practices, and innovative approaches that participants may adapt to their own professional and organizational settings.
