Dear Superintendent Eda:

Public Service Greetings!

In celebration of the 126th Philippine Civil Service Anniversary this September, the Civil Service Commission Ilocos Sur Field Office, together with the Council of Human Resource Management Practitioners (CHRM) – Ilocos Sur Chapter, is pleased to announce its collaboration with the Local Government of Cabugao for a Mangrove Tree Planting Activity.

The activity is scheduled on September 15, 2026 (Tuesday), at 7:00 A.M. in Brgy. Sabang, Cabugao, Ilocos Sur, with about 500 participants from various government offices in the province.

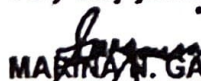

This meaningful endeavor, made possible through the partnership with LGU Cabugao, aims to promote environmental conservation and sustainability through mangrove planting and uphold our shared commitment to public service excellence, environmental stewardship, and employee wellness.

We respectfully request your agency's participation in this initiative by sending at least five (5) participants to join the activity. To facilitate final coordination with the venue and LGU Cabugao, may we kindly ask you to confirm your participation on or before September 8, 2026.

Your involvement will greatly contribute to the success of the activity and affirm our collective dedication to advancing public service while protecting the environment.

We look forward to your favorable response and active engagement.

Very truly yours,

MARTINA N. GARCIA
Director III
