science, mathematics, and engineering, while providing them with meaningful support as they pursue their future educational goals.

The decision to provide scholarships specifically to Senior High School students is rooted in the importance of early encouragement and exposure to engineering and other STEM-related fields. At this stage, students are beginning to make important decisions regarding their future college programs and career paths. Through the STEMEEFY Quiz Show and its scholarship opportunities, we seek to encourage students to consider Electrical Engineering as a potential field of study and to inspire them to pursue careers in engineering, science, technology, and innovation.

Moreover, the scholarship serves not only as a form of recognition but also as an encouragement for young learners to continue developing their potential. By supporting students who demonstrate strong interest and capability in STEM, the program hopes to help cultivate the next generation of engineers, technologists, and innovators.

Through this initiative, the 2nd National STEMEEFY Quiz Show seeks to go beyond academic competition by creating an opportunity to recognize, encourage, and support promising Senior High School students in pursuing STEM education, particularly Electrical Engineering.

We sincerely hope for your support and consideration of this scholarship initiative as we continue to promote academic excellence and inspire more students to pursue careers in STEM.
